Dear Mr. Berg and Ms. Beck:

A telephonic preliminary hearing was just held on the phone this morning at which Mr. Jay Berg, Esq. of Cornicello Tendler & Baumel-Cornicelo LLP attended on behalf of Claimant Langford. Despite certified and regular mail sent and other efforts made to encourage Respondent Beck to attend, Respondent Beck did not attend the preliminary hearing.

In Respondent's absence, the following has been decided:

Claimant shall submit electronically a detailed statement of claim indicating what she intends to prove and exactly what remedies and actions she wishes the arbitrator to take in this matter no later than end of business Tuesday September 24, 2019, along with the authority therefor.

Both parties shall submit electronically by end of business November 15, 2019 all documents relevant to this matter and supporting each party's positions.

All submissions shall be made electronically to AAA case manager Julie Molloy for transmission to the arbitrator and to opposing parties.

The evidentiary hearing in this matter has been scheduled for 10:00 am Wednesday December 4, 2019 at the offices of Cornicello Tender & Baumel-Cornicello LLP, Two Wall Street, 20th floor, New York, NY 10005. At the hearing, Claimant may submit oral testimony via videoconference.

Mr. Berg will make every effort to contact Respondent Beck and apprise her of the situation and make efforts to resolve this matter outside of the arbitration.
